

WINE TOUR "TRADITIONS OF AZERBAIJANI WINES "

Duration: 1 day (4 hours)
Location: Novkhani, Azerbaijan

Do you like to travel and learn something new about the country and its culture? Do you want to combine several excursion programs and tastings of local drinks that are famous all over the world at once? Then you will surely be interested in wine tours in Baku.

What are the features of a wine tour?

Wine tour is a kind of tourist program. It can include excursions and walks around the city, but the main goal is still to introduce the tourist to the country's winemaking. If you consider yourself a wine connoisseur, then you will definitely not be bored on such a journey. As a rule, during such a tour, guests get acquainted with the wine list, enjoy walks around the city and rural landscapes, visit the farms of winemakers and wineries, inspect the cellars and, of course, taste drinks and local treats.

Azerbaijan is one of the world centers for the formation of the culture of viticulture. Just a few minutes' drive from Baku is Marandi, one of the leading new generation wineries. It produces and offers guests aged wines obtained from the harvest of the Fireland vineyards. Vineyards are located on the Absheron Peninsula in the village of Novkhany.
